RECLASSIFICATION OF SHARES AND INCREASE IN THE FLOAT

MEETIC (FR0004063097-MEET), the European leader in online dating, today announces, following a private placement with international long-term institutional investors carried out today, that it has proceeded with the reclassification on the market of 1,140,000 shares representing 7% of the Company's stock, at a price of 29.75 euros per share.

This placement was carried out with shares contributed by Mr Simoncini, Chairman of the Board and CEO of Meetic, and is in response to substantial investor demand for liquidity and an increase in the float, the latter now consisting of 50.94% of the Company's stock.

Following this placement, Mr Simoncini retains 31.05% of MEETIC's stock and 44.07% of voting rights. Mr Simoncini took this opportunity to reaffirm his status as a long-term investor in the company that he founded and his firm intent to retain control and leadership of the Company.

About MEETIC, the European online dating leader (www.meetic-corp.com)

MEETIC manages eight services (Meetic, Meetic Mobile, Ulteem, Superlol, Lexa, ParPerfeito, Dating Direct and eFriendsNet) and markets two highly complementary economic models in the dating market, one based on internet use, the other on mobile phones. MEETIC is established in 15 European countries, China and Brazil, and available in 12 languages. From inception the group has pursued a clear leadership strategy focusing on quality, innovative marketing and perfect technological expertise. MEETIC works hard to optimise service quality and to satisfy every possible expectation of its European subscribers. In 2006, MEETIC posted sales of €78.8 million and net profit of €10.1 million.
